Information about Public Transport

Owing to the extraordinary situation, the ZVV public transport services were reduced. Basic service provides for passengers to be able to count on functioning travel chains. In the coming days, public transport services in the greater Zurich area will gradually be increased. The aim is to provide a nearly regular schedule again as of May 11, 2020.

Detailed information about ZVV service reduction (only German)
- Since April 27, 2020, the service is gradually being expanded in the greater area of Zurich. The changes are continuously updated in the ZVV online timetable.
- The transport companies kindly ask their customers to only travel when absolutely necessary and to stay at home in case of symptoms of illness.
- Passengers should consult the online timetable on www.zvv.ch before each journey; the timetables get updated regularly.
- Please buy tickets electronically (webshop, app).
- Please follow the hygiene recommendations of the Federal Office for Public Health.

Information from the Driver and Vehicle Licensing Office

Licensing
- The counters of all Zurich Driver and Vehicle Licensing Offices and Vessels Registration Offices are open again during regular opening hours. Please continue to do your business online, by phone or mail whenever possible. Please come to us only if absolutely necessary.

Vehicle inspections
- We carry out the regular vehicle inspections and follow-up inspections at all locations again.
- All appointments we have sent out until March remain canceled.
- Appointments for voluntary vehicle inspections can be made again as of immediately.
- You will automatically receive new appointments for your periodical vehicle inspections.
Driver's license medical and psychological assessments

Driver's license medical and psychological assessments (holders of higher driver's license categories, over 75-year olds, imposed control examinations, abstinence controls, driving aptitude assessments) will be carried out again as of April 27, 2020 under special protection concepts. New requests will be sent out soon.

Theory and driver's license tests

There are no theory and driver's license tests.

Provisional Driver's License

Renewal of provisional driver's license

Should your provisional driver's license expire within 2 months (from current date), you can apply for a renewal. The application can be sent by e-mail to info@stva.zh.ch. You will then receive the renewed license by post.
